Welcoming the Stranger

This is Refugee Week. During this week, we can examine ourselves on how ready we are to welcome the stranger in our midst. Many of us in the Catholic community are descended from people who came here from across the water. When we look at today's new arrivals in our city, it is good to remember our own history.

Passionist Provincial Chapter: The Passionist Provincial Chapter opens tomorrow at Drumalis Retreat House, Larne, Northern Ireland. At this meeting, we will elect our Provincial Superior and his Consultors and try to discern what God is asking of the Passionists in Scotland and Ireland as we plan the next four years. Please remember to pray for the Passionists during this week. The Chapter meeting will close on Friday.

Quarterly Collection: The Quarterly Collection is now due. Envelopes are available at the Church door.
