What can we bring to the Lord

As we begin 2009, we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany. What a wonderful opportunity to remember that the Wise Men had to travel great distances to visit the Child in the Manger. They brought very special gifts to present to Jesus but they also brought the precious gift of themselves. Like those wise men we are also on a journey, and we should ask ourselves what can we bring to Jesus today? Perhaps, we could be a little more patient with each other, or a little bit more understanding. Perhaps, we could show others the reality of God's love by the respect and care we have for them. Perhaps we could bring a little more happiness into the lives of others. And, we should never forget to work for a Better, more Peaceful and Just World in which all people can live their lives in Freedom.
