Catholic Education Week

From 1st to 7th February we are focusing on Catholic Education. The theme this year is Bringing Values to Life. If we want to know what we should be teaching our children and each other we can do no better than reflect on the Beatitudes which Jesus gave to his disciples. Even if we were to choose just one and take time to reflect and put into action in our lives what the message is, what a great place our world would be. By doing this, we are letting God into our hearts and striving to share his love. He offers us new directions which will lead us to happiness although to achieve this happiness, we may have to take a different path from many of the people we encounter each day. So, choose one Beatitude and try to live that message this week. If we do this we will be bringing values to life.

Fr. Michael Doogan C.P. this Sunday the 7.00p.m. Mass, will be a Month's Mind to pray for the repose of the soul of Fr. Michael who died in Ireland on 15th December. Many people who have come to here over the years will remember Fr. Michael during his years of ministry in St. Mungo's. After the Mass there will be a cup of tea in the hall. As many people were unable to be in Ireland for the funeral, this will give us all an opportunity to say farewell to a Priest who did so much to develop the Parish during his time here.

Young Adult Group Mass takes place next Sunday (8th) at 7.00p.m. here in St. Mungo's. Please meet at 5.30p.m. in the house to prepare for the Mass.

Young Adult Group will meet on Sunday 15th from 5.30 – 6.30p.m. in the House for Prayer & Reflection. All are welcome.

God Squad: for the children who are preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation continues on Tuesdays from 3.15p.m. until 4.30p.m. and on Saturdays from 10.30a.m. until 11.30a.m. Sr. Edith and her team look forward to welcoming the children to the hall.

Enrolment for the Sacrament of reconciliation will take place next Sunday 8th February at the 12 noon Mass. We would expect that parents will bring the children to this Mass to enable us as a parish to accept those who are preparing for the Sacraments.
