Today is the Third Sunday of Lent - Year B

The Second Collection today is for the Sick and Retired Priests of the Archdiocese

Lent - Be involved

How are you getting along this Lent? Perhaps you have kept your promises or maybe you have not been as good as you would like to be? Don't despair. God is always there to give us the strength and support we need. But what about those who need that little bit of extra help?

This week we have had a request for volunteers which may be of interest to you. Over the years the patients in the Royal Infirmary have been blest with a great bunch of people who would bring them to Mass in the hospital every Sunday at 4.30p.m. Of course as happens, people get a little bit older and less able to do this great work and so they are asking for help.

Have you a couple of hours to spare on a Sunday? Perhaps once a month or more frequently? If so, why not think about helping those who are unwell to gather together for the Eucharist?

If you are interested, please contact Paul Brannen ph: 07853 307541 or by e-mail: brannepaul@sky.com

Of course there are many other opportunities to help others in many other organisations. Why not 'Be involved' this Lent.

Bereavement Group will meet this Tuesday 17th March at 7.30p.m. in the Retreat.

To celebrate the feasts of St Patrick and St Joseph we will have concelebrated Mass at 12.15p.m. on both Tuesday and Thursday of this week.

Enjoy Singing? Why not come along to join the Choir for Easter. You do not have to be able to READ music, just enjoy SINGING! If you are over 16(with your Parents permission) please contact the members of the Music Ministry after Mass on Saturday and Sunday.
