

Ending homelessness.
Rebuilding lives.

Music Studio Engineer Volunteer

What will I be doing?

As a Music Studio Engineer Volunteer, you will volunteer in the music studio of a homelessness service once a month, supporting clients to create music of their own choice. You will inspire and engage clients and encourage their creativity.

In this role, you will be supporting us with all or some of the following tasks:

- Support clients to create music in a music studio setting
- Encouraging conversations around music
- Facilitating music sessions with groups of clients in an inclusive and empowering way.
- Be flexible to the needs of the clients and evolve your role as needed (i.e. group work or 121)
- Adhering to St Mungo's Policies and Procedures at all times.

Where/ When will I be volunteering?

See this role's advert for more information on location and time commitment.

Do I need to have any specific skills?

- Experience of, or an interest in, in leading groups.
- Interest or skills in music
- Confidence in either leading a group or supporting a client 121 (with staff present)
- A friendly personality, good interpersonal skills, enthusiasm and motivation.
- Great communication skills with a person-centred approach.
- An understanding of the causes of homelessness and its impact.
- Genuine interest in and commitment to St Mungo's work and client group.
- An understanding of and commitment to diversity & equality.

We particularly welcome applicants with lived experience.

What support will I receive in return?

We have a dedicated team to support you in your volunteer journey with us. You can find out more about what you'll gain from being a St. Mungo's volunteer on our volunteering webpages.

We are also committed to progression at all levels and we support and develop our volunteers to ensure that they are best placed to make progress in their careers.

How do I get started?

Apply online. Or, contact us at volunteer@mungos.org or on 0203 856 6160 for further support.